

Deborah Spring Laurel

Introduction

Deborah Spring Laurel has been a trainer and consultant in the areas of workplace learning and performance improvement for 50 years. She has 38 years of experience as the President of Laurel and Associates, Ltd., an international learning and consulting firm that specializes in enhancing interpersonal dynamics within organizations.

She has designed and delivered hundreds of different soft skill-building participant-based and accelerated learning workshops on various topics for managers and employees. She has her Master's Degree from the University of Wisconsin- Madison.

Management Training

Deborah taught management and supervisory topics for the Executive Management Institute and the Small Business Development Center in the School of Business at the University of Wisconsin- Madison for 30 years.

She has trained managers both nationally and internationally in Zambia, Kenya, Nigeria, Croatia, Jordan, Equatorial Guinea, and the United Arab Emirates.

Topics

Deborah tailors all virtual and onsite workshops to meet the specific needs of her clients. Key management topics include delegation, team building, coaching, performance management, and presentation skills.

Scope

She serves a wide range of industries, including nonprofits, manufacturing, social services, government, health management, transportation, and utilities.

Results

Deborah helps organizations develop a strong management team with the skills to ensure high retention, employee morale and productivity, quality customer service, and profitability.

If you would like results-oriented experiential training that builds practical management skills your managers can implement immediately, use <http://bit.ly/44yLO5l> to schedule a Zoom conversation with Deborah.